

IDEAL Central Training Programme 2020-21

New EAL Coordinator training

Thurs 15 Oct 2020 & Weds 17 Mar 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

The role and responsibilities of the EAL coordinator, including developing a policy, managing induction and assessment & strategies and resources to support EAL learners. Please note that this training is in two parts and counts as two sessions.

Black Pupils Matter - developing an Anti-racist school Ethos (am) & The Inclusive Curriculum (pm) Weds 13 Jan 2020 9.30am-11.30am & 1.30pm-3.30pm

The morning covers anti-racism, terminology, unconscious biases & teaching about racism. The afternoon will demonstrate how cultural diversity can be reflected across the curriculum & the latest resources and a model to support this. This counts as 2 sessions. You can attend one session for £100 or both for £150.

Nottingham City's Framework for EAL Language Stages

Weds 2 December 2020 1.30pm-3.00pm

Supporting schools with accurate assessment, target setting and progress monitoring using our revised framework (written with a working group of school practitioners)

EAL New Arrivals Weds 20 January 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

What to teach, induction and assessment principles and methods in relation to newly arrived EAL learners: practical approaches and resources to teach and support new English language learners

EAL and Maths Weds 24 February 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

This session will focus on identifying mathematical linguistic demands and exemplifying practical strategies and materials for enhancing the achievement of EAL learners.

EAL in the Early Years Weds 31 March 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

Approaches to ensure inclusion, progress and accurate assessment of bilingual children in Early Years Foundation Stage settings

More Advanced EAL Learners Weds 21 April 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

Strategies to support the learning and language development of more advanced bilingual learners across the curriculum.

Nottingham EAL Virtual Conference Fri 2nd Oct am & Thurs 8th Oct pm 2020

A range of live videos and presentations sharing EAL best practice. Featuring leading EAL specialist Andy Harvey.

Contact Azmah Aziz on 0115 876 4690 for further information about training, support packages and resources available from the IDEAL service.

Inclusive Practices for Emerging and Vulnerable Communities

Weds 28 April 2021 9.30am-11.30am / 1.30pm-3.30pm

The morning covers new emerging communities, school ethos and anti-racism. The afternoon covers positive practice in working with Roma families and community. This counts as 2 sessions. You can attend one session (£100) or both (£150).

EAL and SEND Thurs 17 June 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

Distinctions, differences and overlaps: assessment and steps to ensure appropriate interventions

Academic Literacy for EAL learners Weds 30 June 2021 1.30pm-3.30pm

This session will focus on the vocabulary and grammatical demands that learners may encounter, identifying models of academic literacy and providing examples of strategies and materials for enabling EAL users to develop their proficiency.

These sessions can be attended as stand-alone sessions at £100 each or as part of the training allowance for schools who have purchased a Standard (2 central sessions) or Enhanced (3 central sessions) IDEAL package. Sessions may be conducted online and may be recorded.

Additional Sessions with Chris Pim (EAL and ICT specialist)*

Digital tools to support learning across the curriculum

Weds 3 Mar 2021 9.30am-12.30pm

This hands-on workshop will introduce a range of free and low-cost digital tools to support access and engagement for pupils at the full range of proficiencies in learning EAL.

Approaches to promote pupil voice and learner autonomy for those learning EAL Weds 3 Mar 2021 1.30pm- 4.00pm

This workshop will introduce delegates to a range of ideas to raise the profile of EAL learners and their families and develop learner autonomy in curriculum access and engagement. Includes Young Interpreter Scheme.

*You can attend one session (£100) or both (£150). Not included in the IDEAL packages.

Booking & info at bit.ly/idealncc

ideal@nottinghamcity.gov.uk